

ERD Assumptions

1. All the data represents a single store.
2. Employee salary is calculated using the hourly rate and the working hours of that month
3. A client must have phone number and mobile number
4. When a book is searched can be done by author name, or book name
5. The book that enters the storage means that it was purchased by the store
6. The book that exits the storage means that it was purchased by a client